"My good friends Bruno and Erica bought their home with John Gerber and he also sold their previous home 12 years ago. They assured me that John is a trustworthy and reliable agent.

I have enjoyed our home for 37 years and agreed with my son that it would be wise to move to Vancouver to be near his family and my grandchildren. John Gerber was very considerate of my needs and concerns. He prepared an excellent comparative market analysis and marketing plan for me. John's son Stefan is an agent in Vancouver. He met my son to present John's plan to him.

I appreciated that John Gerber showed me his willingness to be of service to me without rushing me to list. We had complete confidence in John's services and his marketing plan without asking other agents to compare notes. John sold my home at a very suitable price, with the least inconvenience to me. John delivered what he promised. We are delighted with the service we received from The Gerber Group."
