"We noticed how many of our neighbors have sold their homes, very successfully, with John Gerber. It was very important for us to work with a competent agent who we could trust to be in our corner.

We called John to give us his opinion on the value of our home. He provided us with a Comparative Market Analysis that satisfied all our questions about the value of our home. His choices of marketing strategies were sound and they proved to be most successful. We would like express our gratitude to John Gerber for his diligent efforts on our behalf."
