"My father and I considered selling our family home for a number of years. The glowing reviews about John Gerber and his great reputation in Bayview Village prompted us to call him. At that time, we weren't ready to sell as we were still tending to my elderly grandmother, who lived in this house for over 50 years. We appreciated John's professional and candid advice to sell our home without doing any renovations. He was extremely helpful and patient with us.

His extensive knowledge of the area was apparent and he made the whole process run easily and smoothly. He was always available when I had questions and was most accommodating of my busy work schedule. I was VERY impressed with the results. He absolutely exceeded my expectations. Within 8 days of being listed, we received 20 offers and sold well over the asking price!

Without a doubt, I would recommend John Gerber to anyone buying or selling a house. Not only is he extremely knowledgeable in Real Estate, but he is very personable and great to deal with. John, I want to thank you again for all your help and for making the selling of my house such a great experience."
