"Over the last few years we relied on John Gerber's wise counsel. He kept us informed about the Real Estate Market in our area and helped us plan our future.

We were very pleased with the way John Gerber and his team handled the sale of our home. John's professional approach and friendly manner are reassuring. Support was always available throughout the entire process from the initial planning stages and organizing everything from before listing right through to negotiating the offers. He dealt with any of our questions quickly and courteously.

This is the second time John has assisted us selling property and we appreciate the personal attention provided. We feel we can trust him to complete all documents accurately and in a timely fashion, taking away any worries as we moved through a complex process.

Thank you both, John and Veronica."
