"When my father decided it was time to sell the family home I turned to John Gerber for assistance. As a Bayview Village resident I knew of his excellent reputation, a reputation I can now say from personal experience is well deserved. John prepared a comparative market analysis for my father's St. Andrew's home that was thoroughly and carefully researched. His methodical approach to pricing and marketing the property produced results that exceeded our expectations – the house sold for over asking in less than a week. Moreover, John was a pleasure to work with. He is professional yet personable, confident yet unassuming, a skilled negotiator and a man of integrity."
